

1) Shahadah (Declaration of Faith)

The Shahadah is not just a verbal declaration; it's a commitment to live by the principles of Islam.

2) Salah (Prayer)

Prayer connects you with Allah. Start by learning the basic steps of Salah. Join congregational prayers at your local masjid to experience the beauty of unity in worship.

3) Zakat (Charity)

zakat is giving 2.5% of your savings annually purifies your wealth and supports those in need. Learn more about the calculation and distribution of Zakat through trusted Islamic resources. Read why Muslim give Zakat

4) Sawm (Fasting)

Fasting during Ramadan is obligatory for every able Muslim. It's a time of self-discipline and spiritual growth.

5) Hajj (Pilgrimage)

Hajj is a once-in-a-lifetime obligation for those who are physically and financially able. Until then, you can perform Umrah to experience the spiritual blessings of visiting the holy cities of Makkah and Madinah.